PETTY LARCENY.

Our attention has been called to a very unpleasant thing to mention, several times of late. Unpleasant because we dislike to think that we have boys in Wynnewood who are grooming themselves for the Reform School or possibly worse, the penitentiary. But if reports are true and they must be, for they come from our oldest and most staple citizens, that there are boys, yes, great big boys, in Wynnewood who are making a practice of stealing chickens and selling to our local buyers, and by such methods getting money. It is also said to be a dangerous proposition to leave a whip or other valuables in a buggy or either of the churches at night, services on account of them being taken by this class of boys. Parents and the dealers in poultry should have this stopped. The dealer should know that the boy with one or two chickens was suspicious under the present conditions and should refuse to buy them, and by such they may save some boy from a life of shame. The poultry profit he lived will not amount but very little and the stain to a boy of even stealing a chicken would ruin his usefulness and possibly make him a confirmed thief. This is a serious proposition, when looked upon by men who employ help, and it is an old, but will steal a small thing he will take a larger, if the opportunity presents itself. It may be termed pulling, hooking, or what you may, yet it is stealing just the true saying that if a man or boy same.

I am in receipt of many letters from the dear little ones. Headed "why the Daylight Store is a good place to trade?" These letters are all good. It does me good to read them. I dearly love the children; they are trying so hard for the premiums. While they can't all get the presents I am almost persuaded to give them all one for the efforts they are making--yet I do not feel financially able to do this, as there are too many entering the contest. My bank account would feel the effect; of such a drain never mind little ones; I feel you will be benefitted by your efforts whether you gain the prize or not.

The mother, father and relatives of little Thomas Stantor Secrest, feel strongly the sting of the "Silent Messenger." Little Tom Jr. was playing with little friends and had in his mouth a small stick and fell lacerated his tonsil and from which blood poison gained its claim; all the medical skill, physical science and love of mother and father, the tender touch of neighbors and those who loved dearly, had to succumb to the sting of death. Tender, 2 years and 2 months old, child like, at that tender age when all is love, when the recesses of the human soul were grasping for God's richest gifts. God in his infinite nature called Tom Jr. to his Kingdom on Thursday of last week. His little form sleeps in Oak Lawn all the tender words were spoken the writ was read; Tom Jr's spirit is in heaven, and State Gazette places the mantle of hope over all saddened hearts, for we know heaven is the more brighter, even though our neighbors and friends feel deeply their sorrow.

TWO NEGROES LYNCHED

Citizens Avenue Death of Two Whites.

The people of Pauls Valley were surprised to learn this morning that Henry Ralston and Sanders Franklin had been lynched by a mob during the night. It seems that Deputy Sheriff Buckholt was bringing Ralston and Franklin to Pauls Valley for a preliminary hearing, the men having been confined in jail at Ardmore, when near the South Side store on the outskirts of town the deputy saw a crowd and surmising it was bent on lynching the negroes stopped the auto and with the negroes ran across the fields trying to escape with his prisoners. When near the old P. N. Kerr place the mob caught up with the negroes and shot them down. The deputy came back to town and reported the matter to the authorities. Justice Wallace went out and viewed the remains. Ralston was dead, while Sanders was mortally wounded. The verdict of the coroner's jury was death by unknown hands. It will be remembered that Ralston shot and killed a 7 year old boy of Chas. Van Ness, seemingly without provocation, several weeks ago, Sanders Franklin cut the throat of Arthur Airington, a white man of near Elmore, during a quarrel at a negro picnic on Wild Horse where the latter had been with a load of watermelons.
