Promises.—Our esteemed attorney, Mr. Ross, informs us that he has accepted a position with Beale, Massey & Co., Nashville, and inserts the card of his house this paper. This is a good house and well represented.

The largest and most varied assortment of the known articles of commerce, beauty and latest styles ever exhibited in this market, can be found at L. Ross & Bro's.

For the first time since the war, we had the pleasure of attending the services of Rev. Mr. Caldwells' forcible sermon.—

We were glad to see him more often in the sacred desk.

A large assortment of boots and shoes, men's and women's, can be found at L. Ross & Bro's.

The last crop of this country has been entirely short by the long-drawn day spell, but more than half a crop will be made. The hay crop has also been injured, while the grain crop is about five bushels to the acre.

A large assortment of grain and point's clothing, Spring and Summer dresses, can be seen at L. Ross & Bro's. $10-3m

Rain.—After one of the longest droughts in this country for years, a splendid rain fell yesterday evening, which though not enough to meet the demands of the earth. In deepest portions of the county rainfall rains fall at the same time and the prospects of farmers have brightened considerably.

BARRIERS AT PROSPECT.—On Saturday, July 7th, the 10th instant, a number of "top" men gave a big barbecue. Speeches will be made by distinguished orators. We are pleased to announce that the Division at Prospect is ahead of us in the quantity of points of land we negotiate a big time down there on the 11th.

PROMISES.—Our friend Jim Anderson, who has been on a flying pleasure trip to Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, and other cities, places of resort, was home yesterday, arrived at Pulaski last Monday night, and has settled down at his old quarters. We are under obligations to him for many newspaper favors.

DANGER.—All hands at this office are requested to attend a barbecue on Saturday evening at the great Fair. Marriage four and out on the Colossal pile. We see from one of our Nashville correspondents that a fence-sitter has been secured for the great and exciting meeting. Let us make it the order of the day to be there to see.

At the Fair.—Major Aymett had an exciting race last Monday, after a gun who had been stealing bacon from Mr. Tom Denham, a few nights previous. He was followed finally by a gun who got out of the city, after being headed down a dime or two, and committed to jail by "Square" just in time to wait before a jury, who had perjured out of the gamblers in a short time ago.

BRASS BAND.—We are happy to learn that the brass band of the Pulaski Brass Band have arrived and are now in the hands of the members. The instruments are all new and of the best make, and cost three hundred dollars each. The band will play in the court square on the 14th inst. and the 15th.
