SANTIAGO, Dec. 17.—Another naval battle was fought yesterday between the Greek and Greek fleets this morning outside the entrance to the Dardanelles Straits, but the Greeks have very heavy losses. The number of vessels engaged is not known.

Peace Conference Adopts.
London, Dec. 17.—The Balkan delegates of the powers, who are the Balkan allies and Turkey give them full power to make their negotiations. They can therefore not now negotiate. They can come to an arrangement they have made clear when the delegates met at St. James' palace this morning to begin the conference. Mr. Ivanov, Mr. Danail, speaker of the Bulgarian parliament, presided. The conference adjourned for the day at 1 o'clock after deciding to meet again Thursday.

Switzerland Fears War.
Bern, Dec. 17.—The government, in view of the possibilities of war, is augmenting the amount of money available for defense. A consignment of five million dollars in gold and silver arrived here by express from New York yesterday. The government continues to order quantities of grain from America.

LONG PRAISE FOR SUBGRATUITES.

New York, Dec. 17.—Starting two weeks before the opening of the state legislature, when they had the intention of voting for women, a company of suffrage pilgrims left this city today for Albany to call attention to the importance between New York and Albany. They are the co-operative committee of votes for women organizations in this city to the state legislature, and the governor. The promoters of the scheme are Miss Rosalie Jones, Mrs. the state assemblyman, Mr. C. C. Crafts, and the woman's suffrage party. It is expected that the pilgrimage will take two weeks.

CHRISTMAS MAIL.

New York, Dec. 17.—The Canadian liner Marietta, which sailed for London today, has it is estimated, more than $1,000,000 worth of Christmas mail. This is the largest amount ever sent across the ocean in the attempt to have it delivered in time for Christmas. Among the passengers are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, who are returning after taking an American Christmas tree to their four-month-old baby, who is in England. The tree is the largest and most special attendant. The tree is a New England pine, perfectly straight and is covered with one of the finest species grown in America. The most prominent persons who are anxious to spend Christmas abroad with friends or members of their families.

HEARING ON PASACOGA.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Hon. F. H. Wilson and J. B. Rains, both Republicans, will appear this week before a hearing arranged by Representative Harrison before the railroad committee on the project to improve the Pasacoga Harbor. The project, which has already been reported by the United States army board of engineers, with the proviso that the railroad raise the sum of $83,000 required, five years to be given in which to pay this amount. Mr. Wilson said that the railroad and Pasacoga will make an effort to have this project adopted, and the money will be raised by the railroads and Moine Point to contribute the $100,000.

STUDENT PARTIAL HURT.

Pasacoga, N. J., Dec. 17.—Michael Humpal, a pupil in the manual training department of the public schools here, is dying. He is a Maytag student and his injuries received while at work in the school room. A wooden gunite bullet was shot through his head, hit him in the eye and crushed his brain. The boy was taken to the hospital, where he died before running the last nine paces to his death.

GREECE CAUSES HITCH IN PEACE PROCEEDINGS.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The absence of Greece, signatory to the armistice protocol may cause a hitch in the peace proceedings, unless the delegates prove it necessary to adjourn today without offering any real bid for peace. The delegates will communicate with their home government.

BANKERS ASK PASSAGE OF FARMERS' BILL

$5,000,000 APPROPRIATION SOUGHT FROM CONGRESS.

States to Contribute Like Amount for Extension of Agricultural Training
—South Carolinian Author of Important Measure.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Describing the coming session in the interests of agricultural members of Congress, the bankers' association of the District of Columbia division of the American Bankers' Association, which will be in session during the passage of the Agricultural extension bill, before adjournment of the session, the banker who presides over the division, says every agriculturist in the Union will appropriate $2,000,000, to run over ten years, the several states to appropriate a like amount.

The urgency of the bankers' association resulted from the fact that the extension measure, which was introduced in the House of Representatives, was not passed by the Senate.

It should be noted, however, by all contestants that the diamond ring will enjoy the honor of having won.

The thing to do is to get very popular with the spectators, and the contestants and their friends and them to take a subscription for as long a time as you can, and the more you receive the greater the value of the diamond ring.

Each voter will ask for at least a dollar.

The number of votes given for old and new subscriptions is considerably reduced, and the first three contestants will each get a diamond ring.

This is the first time in the history of the contest before nine o'clock of the night of December 23.

Organization is in reality a contest in a contest of this kind. Any contest is really a contest in itself. All contestants started with a clean slate in the race, Monday morning and all are on an equal footing. Subscriptions do not count on the diamond ring; it is only such subscriptions as are turned in from the start that will be counted.
