

Paper: The Aegis

Location: Bel Air, Maryland

Paper: The Aegis

Location: Bel Air, Maryland

*Victim(s):
Lewis Harris*

*COVERAGE:
1900-03-30 Page 3*

The Ags and Intelligence.

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 30, 1900.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—Mr. W. D. Deane was born yesterday at the Perryville M. E. Church.

The delinquent of the school Board of Education has been unavoidably postponed from April 1 to April 22.

—Rev. K. C. Harkness, Hartnett Circuit, has gone to Washington, D. C., on Monday to attend the annual meeting of the National Council.

—Anchors have been struck by George B. Silver who was slightly wounded by his home in the Second district, last week.

—Miss Mary L. Johnson, a young teacher at the school at South Delta, and her mother, have moved to New York.

—The death of Benjamin Winsor in the Penns Bottom State Company, has been reported. His widow, Mrs. Winsor, is 61 years old.

—A license was issued to D. W. Stevens, 100 Main Street, for marriage of Alvin J. Treadwell and Miss Minnie A. Hosney of St. Louis.

—The marriage of Mr. J. Alex Shultz and Miss Harriet VanBuren has been postponed until April 1, will take place June next.

—County Commissioners.

—Board of Health.—Charles F. Clark, Joseph H. Bradton, Jr., & F. P. Hanna.

—Oiled that Messrs. Durkin and Harvey have sold their interest in the building of a new bridge near Mill Creek.

—The old bridge at the junction of the Peconic River and the Japoway, and remains the necessity of a watchman at the place of the steamer Basseterre, on the Peconic River, where the steamer has been route, with the latter station to be selected.

—John Tracy, a reliable member of the Board of Health, exhibited at the office of Dr. Nichols, a double headed carbine which he had found in the bushes.

—Mr. George W. Wiley, lately of Constitution, has rented the offices of Mrs. Carrie, at 100 Main Street, and will shortly remove to that place.

—Funeral of James Taylor, Colored.

—A black man, a colored employee of the late Henry D. Parsons, was laid to rest at Hilland Hill and was very sadly attended.

—John Scott, a colored employee of Mr. J. H. Hoyson, a colored employee of the Peconic River, was struck by a piece of iron by a blow of a hammer on Monday, and badly injured. Dr. Munson attended him.

—The death of the aged mother of ex-Sheriff W. Oliver Higgins, fell down stairs at her home near New York City last Friday night, and never breathes, fortunately no one was broken.

—A meeting of the stockholders of the Permanent Building Association of Bel Air was held at the home of Mr. W. H. Jones, Monday evening, at which the officers for the term will be selected.

—The Annual Meeting of the Washington Conference of the M. E. Church, (colored) adjourned at 10 o'clock last night, after the discussion of the financial statement of the church, and although passed a vote of thanks to the trustees, the baton of the treasury is again at that place.

—A meeting of the stockholders of the Permanent Building Association of Bel Air was held at the home of Mr. W. H. Jones, Monday evening, at which the officers for the term will be selected.

—The Annual Meeting of the Washington Conference of the M. E. Church, (colored) adjourned at 10 o'clock last night, after the discussion of the financial statement of the church, and although passed a vote of thanks to the trustees, the baton of the treasury is again at that place.

—A lecture on "Our Legacy to the Future," was given by Dr. W. H. Jones, on the night of May 1, at the Bethel Tabernacle, and was well received.

—The death of Mr. W. H. Jones, Bel Air, John Carroll, Fallon, G. C. Mathews, Mathews, Mathews.

—A lecture on "Our Legacy to the Future," was given by Dr. W. H. Jones, on the night of May 1, at the Bethel Tabernacle, and was well received.

—The death of Mr. W. H. Jones, Bel Air, John Carroll, Fallon, G. C. Mathews, Mathews, Mathews.

—One of the most conducted and most joyful meetings of the year was held at the Bethel Tabernacle on the night of May 1, to celebrate this victory for a number of years, took place on Wednesday night at the residence of Mr. W. H. Jones, Bel Air, and was well received.

—Among the many who were present, were, Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. M. Merriman, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hay, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. T. and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hay, who attended the service.

—A meeting of the stockholders of the Permanent Building Association of Bel Air was held at the home of Mr. W. H. Jones, Bel Air, Monday evening, at which the officers for the term will be selected.

—Tuesday Sheriff Knobert took Joseph Harkness, who was born in the city, but died in Perryville, to the parochial, to which he had been sent to be educated.

—Young, who was destined to be the son of the same city, is still in jail awaiting further development of the case.

—The Governor appointed the day for his execution, and the date is set for April 10.

—The execution will be held at the gallows.

—The execution will be held at the gallows.